

Haynes Publishing Group P.L.C. ("Haynes").

Haynes (LON:HYNS) is pleased to announce that it has reached agreement on the acquisition of the E3 Technical business from Carweb Ltd., a Solera UK subsidiary, for a total cash consideration of £4.72 million (the "Transaction"). The consideration is being funded from Haynes' existing cash resources and banking facilities.

The E3 Technical business consists of repair and maintenance information ("RMI"), vehicle registration mark look-up ("VRM") and an associated provision of helpdesk services. The Transaction includes the acquisition of certain customer contracts, and employees from Carweb.

Commenting on the Transaction, Eddie Bell, Chairman of Haynes, said "this acquisition will significantly strengthen the Group's professional data solutions offering in the UK and provide cross over benefits for Haynes' consumer division."

This announcement contains inside information for the purposes of Article 7 of Regulation (EU) No 596/2014.
